NO ARMISTICE FOR AGUINALDO.

Otis Denies the Request—Insurgents Army Fast Going to Pieces.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

"MANILA, May 22.—Adjutant-General, Washington: Condition as follows: In Bulacan province troops maintained at Quiang, Balag, San Miguel, Lawton proceeding down Rio Grande river from San Isidro; have driven enemy westward from San Antonio, Carlos and Arayat, where he was joined yesterday by Kold's column; will reach Santa Ana and Cantaba today.

Line's force at Manila, much diminished; has destroyed several miles railway in his front; number officers of rank have deserted; Luna; a few have entered Manila for protection; in Pampanga and Bulacan inhabitants returning to homes, no fear insurgent troops; south of Manila insurgents' army still maintained; conditions in general better; and but no troops and combat to Nerosa tomorrow to occupy Calabanga in south; north and westward progress of Aguinaldo's commissioners for assistance."

THE WARREN AT MANILA. WASHINGTON, May 22.—The War Department has received the following cablegram from General Otis:

"MANILA, May 22.—Adjutant-General, Washington: Warren arrived last night. No casualties. "OTIS."

McKINLEY'S INTENTIONS. MANILA, May 22, 2:30 P. M.—The United Philippine Commission has submitted to the Philippine Commission a draft of the form of the government which the President is prepared to establish. According to this plan, a Governor-General will be appointed for the islands by the President as will be a Cabinet, and later an Advisory Council will be elected by the people.

PHILIPPINE GOVERNMENT. WASHINGTON, May 22.—The report from Manila that a form of government has been proposed to the Philippines, including a Governor-General, Cabinet and Advisory Council, is confirmed at the State Department, where it is said this is the general line of action on which the authorities here and at Manila are proceeding.

The plan is the outgrowth of numerous cables and mail exchanges between President Schurman, of the Philippine Commission and Secretary

Hay, as well as advices from General Otis and Admiral Dewey.

The proposition to have a Governor-General and Cabinet appointed by the President is substantially the same as the system now in operation in Cuba. Like the Cuban system, the permanent trait will be military in character, for the time being at least, while conditions are unsettled. The authorities here are acting on the theory that, as in the case of Porto Rico, it will be for Congress to establish the permanent form of government for the islands.

It was understood at the time that General Otis would become Governor-General, while General Lawton assumed action in the direction of Military Commander. It is now probable that this plan might be carried out if the Philippines accept the plan now proposed, thus making General Otis the first Governor-General, with General Lawton and General MacArthur occupying positions similar to those of General Lawton and Wood in Cuba.

The proposed Advisory Council is also similar to that in Cuba, where Governor-General Brooke has the advice of a native council as well as that of the military officers under him. The main idea of the system proposed in the Philippines is to carry out the assurance given in the proclamation issued some time ago, to maintain the sovereignty of the United States over the islands, and at the same time give the natives the pleasure of home rule.

REBELS HORDES DEMORALIZED. MANILA, May 22, 2:30 P. M.—In spite of the presence of the Philippine Commission in Manila, the military operations continue with vigor.

Their course was apparently in ignorance of the true situation here. On their arrival they were immediately inundated with invitation, covering both day and night, and expressed surprise at the condition of affairs within our lines. They had been led to believe that everything was chaotic, and were delighted at the reception accorded them.

Reports received from persons who have arrived from the interior show that no troops are left in the northern provinces. They were all drafted south after the outbreak of the war. The villages on the west coast are almost deserted, and the locusts especially are desolous of joining the Americans for the purpose of crushing the Tagals. Many natives of Benguet and Ilocos said that if the Americans had not arrived civil war would necessarily have ensued, owing to the friction between the Tagals and the inhabitants of other provinces.

It is claimed that the only Filipino troops left are 1,000 men under Luna at Parac, and about 4,000 under Pico. These are short of arms and supplies. Many of their rifles are disabled, and they are unable to repair them, owing to the lack of mechanics and materials.

FLIGHT OF THE SPANARDS. A coasting steamer which arrived here reports that the Spanish garrison at Zamboanga, Island of Mindanao, is held by the rebels in much the same manner as the Americans held them while they were in the vicinity of Manila. Every night the Spaniards are subjected to an ineffectual fusillade, and if they are not soon relieved they will be reduced to the condition of the Spanish garrison at Iloilo just previous to its evacuation of that place.

TEXT OF OUR PROPOSALS.

MANILA, May 22.—3:15 P. M.—Professor Schurman, head of the United States Philippine Commission, submitted the following written propositions to the Filipinos:

"While the final decision as to the form of government is in the hands of the Congress, the President, under his military power, pending the action of Congress, stands ready to offer the following form of government:

"A Governor-General to be appointed by the President; a Cabinet to be appointed by the Governor-General, all the judges to be appointed by the President; the heads of departments and judges to be either American or Filipino, or both, and also a general Advisory Council, its members to be chosen by the people by a form of suffrage to be hereafter carefully determined upon.

"The President earnestly desires that bloodshed cease and that the people of the Philippines, at an early date, enjoy every means of self-government with peace and order."

FILIPINOS UNDECIDED.

The United States Commission prepared the scheme, and the President cabled his approval of the form of the document. The Filipinos have made no definite proposition except for a cessation of hostilities until they can present the question of peace to the people. Professor Schurman told the Filipinos they had no means of gathering the people together, as the Americans had control of the ports. He also reminded them that a liberal form of government is better than a despotic one, and that it was better than the conditions existing under Spanish rule.

Gonzaga, President of the Filipino Commission, replied that nothing could be worse than Spanish rule, and admitted that the form of government proposed was better than the one now existing.

AGUINALDO DISCREDITED.

The civilian members of the Philippine Commission have decided to cooperate with the other members of that Commission as to the form of government, and consider Aguinaldo's proposal to be preposterous and approve Otis' refusal of an armistice, referring to his wish for time in which to consult the Filipino Congress.

After a conference tomorrow with the United States Commission, the Filipino Commissioners will launch with Professor Schurman and will afterwards visit the vessels composing the American fleet.

REBELS READY TO SURRENDER.

Merely Ask Assurances of American Good Faith.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, May 22.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from Manila says: In an interview with Gregorio del Pilar in the presence of Dr. Robair, a close friend of Aguinaldo, and another peace commissioner, Ziafita, who approved the sentiments expressed by General del Pilar, he said:

"The insurgents are anxious to surrender, but want the assurance first that there will be no putting to death of the leaders in the rebellion and some proof that Americans will carry out the generous statements in their proclamation.

"We have been acquainted with the Americans but a short time. If they are sincere, why we will agree to unconditional surrender.

"In negotiations entered into with rebellious Spanish officers in the previous rebellion similar promises were made, but not carried out. Ruiz and others were put to death in spite of the promises.

"If we give up our arms we are at the complete mercy of the Americans.

"We realize the hopelessness of a Filipino republic, for the people are now impoverished and a continuance of hostilities would only increase the suffering."

Revenue Cutter Disabled.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

ASTORIA, Ore., May 22.—The new stern wheel United States revenue cutter Nunivak, bound from San Francisco to St. Michael, passed the mouth of the Columbia river this morning in tow of the United States steamer Richard Rush. She was assisting with her own steam and signaled all well.

COLORED PASTORS NOT TERRORIZED.

An Assembly Delegate Refutes Newspaper Story.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 22.—At the session of the Presbyterian General Assembly Rev. W. H. Franklin, a colored minister of Rochester, Tenn., read an extract from a local paper which said that no colored member of the assembly had yet spoken in the debate, on account of the fear inspired by the recent outrages in the South, not knowing but what they might be held to pay bail account when they return.

Mr. Franklin stated that the article was without foundation and unjust to colored men, to the assembly and to the people of the South. He had returned colored commissioners. There should be a public denial. Dr. Franklin explained that in the presbyteries of Holston and French Broad, from which he comes, there are twenty-four white and four colored ministers and 6,000 white and 1,000 colored communicants.

He said that the white majority had sent him one of the two ministers who represented them. Dr. Franklin offered resolutions referring the newspaper statement, and explaining that the colored commissioners were not restricted from debate because of fear.

Special committees were announced, and the report of the Committee on Freedmen was read.

The report was highly congratulatory to the Freedmen's Board, even though it had ended the year $10,000 in debt instead of free from debt as the appropriation had been made to be raised to cancel the debt. Some of the Presbyteries were assessed nearly $2,000. The amount subscribed at once is $35,000.

The Freedmen's report would have been adopted without delay had it not been for one section, which refers to the recent lynchings in the South. The negro question is spoken of as "One that appeals to us with imperative insistence, because of the mischievous prejudice and barbaric caste spirit that are today prevailing new tortures for the negro's body and new torments for his soul. We heartily join with our fellow citizens and fellow Christians of the South in the horror of these deeds."

It was taken up later as a special order.

Rev. Graham C. Campbell of Burlington, Virginia, read Presbyterians against giving money to Booker T. Washington. He said Mr. Washington was doing a grand work. But who could carry it on after Washington had gone? In many regions it had been found that Mr. Washington's young men had taken from Presbyterians all their money from the Freedmen's Board.

The board could spend the money to just as good advantage as Mr. Washington could.

CHICAGO, May 22.—Owing to the fight in progress among the transcontinental roads over passenger rates for the National Educational Association's Convention at Los Angeles, it is said the rates to Colorado points will be cut in two, and the fare will probably be about an extensive Western rate war.

All the Western roads have replied to inquiries sent out by the chairman of the Western Passenger Association, notifying them that they will not make any decided rates for students returning to their homes for the summer vacations.

A call was issued today for another meeting of the Western lines, to resume the consideration of the immigration question and the proposed revision of the Western Passenger Association agreement where it was left off at the adjournment of the meeting last week. The adjourned meeting will be held next Thursday, by which time it is hoped all the roads will have reached a definite conclusion as to the course to be pursued.

Western roads have agreed to cease making reductions from the Missouri river to California for the transportation of volunteers returning to their homes. This arrangement will go into effect June 1st. At the same time, it is expected the Southern Pacific will put into effect the same arrangement from New Orleans.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

TORONTO, May 22.—The section men of the Grand Trunk system recently asked for an increase of wages, which was refused, and today about 800 men struck.

They claim that under present conditions they could not make more than $5 to $6 a day, and asked that the minimum be made $12.50. The Grand Trunk officials say that unless the men resume work by tomorrow they will be discharged and new men taken on. In the latter event the matter will be on behalf of the men.

The strike affects the system from Sarnia, Ont., to Portland, Maine.

DOCK STRIKE AT BUFFALO.

The Monthly Men All Return to Work Today.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 22.—The situation today indicates an early ending of the dock strike. All of the elevators on the creek, at which boats were moored, were at work today with full complements of monthly men (machinists, etc.) in charge of machinery. The monthly men, who began a sympathetic strike last week, went back to work today. The strikers at the Northern elevators were refused work, but may be taken on later.

About twenty-five imported men were sent back to New York today.

The situation on the coal and ore docks is unchanged, only a very small number of men being at work.

The State Board of Mediation and Arbitration met today, but no action was taken on the suggestion of representatives of both the contractors and the strikers.

President Keefe of the International Longshoremen's Union said this afternoon he believed the strike would be settled within twenty-four hours. The only hitch now, he said, was over the question of horses. If a proposition which he had to submit was not acceptable to the contractor he was willing to have the question settled by arbitration. The proposition referred to has already been declined by the contractor, in substance. The indications still point to the ending of the strike within twenty-four hours.

NURSE GIRL KIDNAPED A BABY GIRL.

Clever Plot Carried Out in New York.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, May 22.—What appeared to be a bold case of kidnapping of a child was reported to the police today, and a score of detectives were at once sent out in an endeavor to arrest the offenders. The missing child is Marion, the 18-month-old daughter of Arthur Clark, an employee of a publishing firm. She was taken, the police say, by a nurse named Carrie Jones, who was hired last week by the Clarks through an advertisement. The whole thing seems to have been a cleverly planned plot. The child was taken out yesterday afternoon by the nurse, and the empty baby carriage was found by the police in Central Park. Soon afterward Mrs. Clark received this letter:

"Mrs. Clark: Do not look for your nurse and baby. They are safe in our possession, where they will remain for the present. If the matter is kept out of the hands of the police and newspapers, you will get your baby back safe and sound. If, instead you make a big time about it, and publish it all over, we will see to it that you never see her alive again. We are driven to this by the fact that we cannot get work, and one of us has a child dying, through want of proper treatment and nourishment. If everything is quiet you will hear from us Monday or Tuesday."

There is evidence to show that the nurse girl wrote the letter. Mrs. Clark is in a serious condition, and the suspense may cause her death.

W. W. FOOTE AND B. C. TRUMAN FOR PARIS COMMISSIONERS.

SACRAMENTO, May 20.—Governor Gage has appointed Hon. W. W. Foote of Oakland and Ben C. Truman of Los Angeles as Paris Fair Commissioners from California.

Hon. W. W. Foote has been a resident of Oakland for many years. He is one of the stalwarts in the Democratic party and is well known and popular all over the State. As a lawyer he stands in the very front rank of the men in California who are learned in the law. The appointment of Mr. Foote is a particularly pleasing one as there is no man in this State who holds more sacred a public trust than does Mr. Foote. The position was not sought by Mr. Foote. It came to him without any solicitation whatever. It goes without saying that Mr. Foote will be a credit to the State as Paris Commissioner.

Ben C. Truman is well known in this State. He is the proprietor of a newspaper in Los Angeles. He is known as a literary man of no mean ability. The appointment of Mr. Truman is a popular one.

CROWDS CHEER THE PRESIDENT.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 20.—The Presidential train is being received enthusiastically during its run through the Shenandoah valley. Staunton was reached at an early hour, and the train was side-tracked until 8 A. M. All along the road a large crowd had collected, and the town was gaily decorated with flags, while pictures of the President were generally displayed. A committee invited Mr. McKinley to address the assembled crowd, and proceeded by a band, the President was escorted to the public square.

McKINLEY TAKES THE CAKE.

WOODSTOCK, Va., May 20.—Though no stop was intended until Fisher's Hill was reached, the people at many stations were given an opportunity to greet the President and as many hands were shaken as could be reached from the platform at the end of the train. At Newmarket, Broadway and Mount Jackson, the stations were crowded with people, many waving the American flag. At the last point a huge cake was handed the President with the following note attached: "The ladies and gentlemen of Mount Jackson gave a burlesque on the old-time colored cake walk last night for the benefit of the Methodist Church, and they desire the cake to go to the White House, and to wish present the same to the President and Mrs. McKinley."

BIG SALES OF REAL ESTATE.

J. H. Macdonald & Company, the well known real estate dealers of Ninth street today, again gave proof of the fact that real estate business is advancing in a most satisfactory manner. They have effected a number of sales and some of them are unusually large.

A sale effected today was of a piece of property 165 feet front on San Pablo avenue and 100 feet on Sixteenth street. It was sold for Coleman Brothers of San Francisco to H. S. Palmer, the consideration being $115,000.

Another sale was that of a fifty-foot lot on the west side of Broadway between Second and Third streets. The sale was made for A. L. Stone.

The sale was made to a syndicate, the consideration being $120,000. A modern hotel of the Colonial pattern will be established on the site.

PORTER TO GO ABROAD.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—John Addison Porter, secretary to the President, and family, will sail for Scotland and the Continent in about ten days. This trip is taken upon the suggestion of the President, who advised Mr. Porter not to attempt to resume his duties at the White House until his health was completely restored. His stay abroad will probably extend through the summer.

head of their organization. The act of the Chicago Board of Trade in calling for the abrogation of the contract of Mr. Connors is said to have greatly strengthened the belief of a majority of the strikers that they can force the Lake Carriers to this action.

Although the striking men were very earnest in their talk at last night's meeting, everything is quiet today. There were several affairs in the vicinity of the docks last night, during one of which a number of shots were fired and six arrests were made by the police. No one was injured.

Six elevators were lifting grain today. The lake line men claim to have a full force of freight handlers on every dock. Many of the men, however, are inexperienced. The ore and coal docks appear to be neglected, the operators apparently making no concerted move to operate them.

ALGER GOT HIS ANSWER.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

DETROIT, May 20.—Senator James McMillan received last night the following dispatch from Washington: "Are the reports in the press to the effect that you are a candidate for the United States Senate true? Answer at once, please."

"(Signed) RUSSE L. A. ALGER." Today the Senator answered: "R. A. Alger, Washington: 'I should have preferred a personal conference with you, but your dispatch appears to demand an immediate answer. I am a candidate for the United States Senate.'"

"JAMES McMILLAN." Secretary Alger's dispatch is looked upon by Senator McMillan's friends as an indication that the Secretary is considering a withdrawal from the senatorial race.

A BIG RAISE IN WAGES.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

PITTSBURGH, May 20.—An increase in wages for 7,500 men was the result of the annual prescription scale conference between the American Flint Glass Workers' Association and the Association of Flint and Lime Glass Manufacturers, which adjourned in Pittsburgh today. Of this number 1,500 skilled workmen will receive an increase of 10 per cent, and 6,000 unskilled hands an advance in proportion. The advance will restore to the men the wages they received in 1892 and 1893.

MANTELL A BANKRUPT.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

CHICAGO, May 20.—Robert Mantell, actor, filed a petition in bankruptcy today. Liabilities were placed at $100,000 and assets at $100,000. The principal claim which the petitioner seeks to rid of is a judgment for $100,000 allegedly given in New York in favor of his wife.

VAN WYCK'S VETO.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, May 20.—Mayor Van Wyck today vetoed the proposed election bill. The bill provided for the separation of the Bureau of Elections from the Police Department, and the appointment of a bipartisan commission of four to have charge of the conduct of elections. The Mayor gave no reasons for his action.

Milkman's Disappearance.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

MONDAY.....MAY 22, 1899.
Another actor has gone bankrupt, this time with liabilities of $10,000. The fact that three or four members of the profession have declared themselves insolvent of late for large-sized sums creates the suspicion that they are manipulating a new method of free advertising. The idea is to let the public see that they rank so high in the business that they can get lots of credit.

The announcement that the Santa Fe people are making overtures to secure a location in Eureka dispels all the talk that they are to reach San Francisco Bay under a friendly arrangement with the Southern Pacific. It is evidently going to be a case of "the devil take the hindmost" as far as getting business is concerned, so whatever benefits are to be derived from competition will soon be within our reach.

The long respite the newspaper-reading public has had from pugilism and all thing appertaining thereto is ended, for the approaching Fitzsimmons-Jeffries bout has obtained the floor and will keep it until the middle of next month, when the fight takes place. From now on, therefore, we will not get daily points on swings on the solar plexus, right hooks, upper cuts, and all the other sporting vernacular. The English are not the only people who "take their pleasures sadly."

The big real estate deals that have taken place in Oakland during the past few days express the confidence of capital in our future. Some day soon, when the city is booming as it should, and big improvements are resulting in investments and developments in every direction, we will wonder why we delayed so long in taking advantage of our opportunities. It is certainly patent that we have everything at hand for the making of one of the biggest cities in the West.

Professor Markham has nothing to fear from all these charges of plagiarism that are leveled at his poem "The Man With the Hoe," for all the refutation necessary is furnished by the printing of the various selections said to be the keynotes of his production. It is not surprising that with such a grand subject as the one presented by Miller's painting, many a poet sought to reproduce the artist's ideas in words, but it remained for Markham to give to the world the masterpiece.

A STERN BUT GOOD RULE.

At first glance it may perhaps appear that there is a strain of inhumanity in the resolution adopted by the Board of Prison Directors whereby any convict found with a deadly weapon in his possession shall be placed in solitary confinement for the rest of his term, even though that may mean the remainder of his life. Nothing is more terrible than absolute solitude, especially to one who has been accustomed to an active life, as has been the case with most criminals, and it is dreaded with a horror second only to that of death itself.

Yet it is this very fear that makes the punishment advisable. Every attempt to keep the convicts unarmed has hitherto failed, and if ever one is to succeed it will be under the new conditions. Heretofore a convict has laughed at the efforts to keep him without weapons, but now with the horrors of the most dreaded punishment within prison walls awaiting him for the offense, he is more than likely to shun a knife or pistol as he would a snake. Stern necessities demand heroic measures, and in view of the recent armed outbreaks at Folsom and San Quentin the Directors are certainly justified in the course they have taken.

THE PARIS COMMISSION.

Alameda county has again been recognized by the State administration, this time in a manner that not only brings honor to one of our citizens but also confers a distinct boon upon the community. The appointment of W. W. Foote as Commissioner to Paris should be an occasion of general rejoicing heretofore for although no one questions that he will perform his duties fairly and impartially as far as the State at large is concerned, still it is only natural that he will keep a very watchful eye indeed upon Alameda county's interests, so we can figure that we will have a special Commissioner of our own upon the scene.

In the selection of Messrs. Foote, Truman and Runyon, the Governor succeeded in solving the problem in the happiest way possible of how to satisfy the varied interests of the State by his appointments. Major Truman, who represents the Southern section, is a man of much versatility and originality and as he has a well stored mind regarding California, he will be a thoroughly practical and able official. Mr. W. Runyon of Red Bluff, to whom was awarded the northern appointment, will bring to the Commission the advantages of a sound commercial training and is admirably adapted for the financing of the appropriation. W. W. Foote, the third member, is one of the leaders of the bar in the State and therefore will be invaluable in that regard. In addition to which he is a man of great vigor and executive ability and thoroughly alive to every interest of California.

It is understood that the additional honor of the Secretaryship of the Commission is to go to Alameda county, for Varney W. Gaskill of this city is said to be slated for the place and will be elected as soon as organization is perfected. No better selection could be made, for apart from his standing in the Republican party he is well fitted for the position.

The people of California can be well satisfied with the selections of the Governor, for he has insured a thorough watch and ward being kept over the interests of the State. We must back up his work by seeing to it that our exhibits are thoroughly representative of our resources, for if there was ever a time to obtain benefits from advertising ourselves it will be next year when all civilization floods to the great show on the banks of the Seine.

A strange card in favor of the seating of Quay and Burns is that their cause is championed by Senator Chandler, the chairman of the Elections Committee. With the majority committee report for them, good speakers and energetic workers to espouse their cause and Quay's personal influence exerted all along the line, no one can dispute the statement that their prospects are bright, to say the least.

It is true that the Czar is about to make a move that will bring about the abolishment of the horrors of imprisonment in Siberia, he will indeed stamp himself as one of the best rulers Russia has ever had. The Siberian matter is far more of a practical proposition than his peace project, and as its fulfillment is entirely in his own hands, there is nothing to stop him if he is in earnest.

The fish are getting even with the sea-hens now, for the war of extermination has commenced and as the seals are valueless—their skins not being fur-bearing—they are left where they are shot, which, as a rule, is in the water. Instead of the fish being food for the seals, therefore, the seals are food for the fishes.

The enormous tobacco crop that is expected in Cuba this season will come in very handy over there now that the "piping" times of peace have returned again.

FINE SHOW AT DEWEY THEATER

The sterling comedy-drama "A Flag of Truce" will be presented at the Dewey Theater this evening. The play contains an interesting love story and it will doubtless please the audience. The Grand stock company, headed by Laurence Stevens, has been in active rehearsal and a complete production is assured. "Northern Lights" will follow next Monday evening, when the Exempt Firemen will have a benefit.

Joaquin Miller Roasted to a Standstill by County Auditor Ewing--The Three Donkeys and the Poet's Writings.

By J. CAL. EWING, COUNTY AUDITOR.

One word more with you, at long's length, Mr. Joaquin Miller. Again stand up and take your medicine, your jaws transfixed by the convenient corn-cob.
Listen to me, with your ears pinned down.
True, I, J. Cal. Ewing, by the grace of God and the favor and good opinion of the good people of Alameda county was elected County Auditor, am also a Native Son.
As such, I am here to defend, against rowdies and all other comers, Oakland, my town, my county and my native State.
Has much Chicago "grease and whisky," to use your own choice if not appealing vocabulary, upset your bile, that you pour it forth upon Street Superintendent M. K. Miller's gutters?
Sit you down awhile, old vagrant Bacchus, behind your roses; put your spitting, disheveled head beneath those trickling water spouts of yours and irrigate yourself in a more normal manner than that prevailing in Chicago and the East. Play upon the only sort of pipes that you any longer know how to touch, until your pulses right themselves. Sober up and lay off, and thank the Lord for a probation far beyond your profane deserts.
So, you made Oakland, and made it known, forsooth, by your aerated and altitudinous doggerel?
Who told you this?
The oracles in your barn yard?
How dare you, how can you believe them? You must have faith beyond the grain of mustard seed!
In your rejoinder to my word of righteous indignation on behalf of illbred Oakland and the whole body of affronted Native Sons, you say: "Whatever this man or boy may be he must be bright. He makes so much noise. But I have three donkeys on the place, each one of which can beat him. Say, young man, my donkeys are for sale. I want to save an advertisement. Please say that they're for sale."
So you keep your poor relations as a barnyard clique, do you? And you have fed, to repetition, upon their noise? They have exhausted themselves in applauding your peculiar style of poetry, and now you are ready to turn them off upon the highest bidder?
How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is to have a thankless brother!
This is like the man and poetaster who would bite the civic hand that has nursed and fed and mothered him to his present low estate. Ungrateful in one thing, ungrateful in all.
Turning aside your faithful and admiring donkeys, denouncing and obliterating Oakland, you also here go further on your lunging way and decry the California newspaper.
This, viper, from you, the coddle pet and retainer of a misguided but generous California newspaper!
Who sent you clumping and braying into the theretofore unpolluted spaces of the frozen North? Who paid you by the mile for your confusing and unprofitable quash, because, under the laws of this State the noble State that you malign, contracts hold despite the pitiful performance of the party of the second part, and because all the force of legal precedent runs to the disadvantage of him who buys a pig in a poke?
Whence came the funds that precipitated you upon an unsuspecting and defenseless East? Who is responsible for that unholy, mounted bank show that you have been making of yourself?
A California newspaper, indeed.
And so you are still after free advertisement, to be sure?
Was not the continent wide enough for the bill boards of your colossal vanity? Is the fakir show to be perennial? Are you, now, about to perform equestrian feats upon those three donkeys for which you thus candidly bespeak gratuitous advertisement?
You do not know me, you lament. The advantage is on my side. Your education has been neglected, Joaquin Miller, in many other points, as well as in that.
Still, I am generous and forgiving—of anything except abuse of Oakland, California and the Native Sons.
Reform in these particulars. Make amends. Come down from that barnyard fence, gracefully if you are not too stiff in your sin, but come down anyway, and drop around after office hours, and I shall be happy to supply the first requisites for your liberal education.

To Be Wedded in the Early Fall.

The engagement of Miss Marie L. McDermott of this city to Austin N. Walton of San Francisco has been announced.
Miss McDermott is the daughter of the late Bernard McDermott of 514 1/2 High Street. She graduated from the State University with the class of '98, taking the degree of letters.
Mr. Walton graduated from St. Ignace College with honors. He now holds a responsible position with the Pacific Mail Company.
The wedding will be a quiet home affair. It will take place in the fall.

BURGLARS MAKE SMALL HAULS. CUBANS SUSPICIOUS.

One Place Robbed in Broad Day Light.

The industrious burglar who has for several weeks been the terror of Jackson street residents has grown bold with his successes and moved farther down town.

Early Saturday morning the store of Nicholas Symonopoulos, the florist, next door to the Central Bank building on Broadway, was entered and a few dollars taken. Nothing else was disturbed.

Saturday afternoon the residence of Albert Barlow, 123 Telegraph avenue, was robbed sometime between 1 and 3 o'clock. The intruder left undisturbed articles of jewelry of considerable value confining his search to money of which he secured $21.

Mrs. Barlow was in the basement when the robbery took place and upon returning to the upper floor found the house in general disorder.

Friday night an attempt was made to enter the house of Immigration Commissioner Hart North, at 720 Fifteenth street. The would-be intruder was frightened away before he effected an entrance.
Sometime between closing time Saturday night and opening time yesterday morning the saloon of Baquet & Frame on the ground floor of the Galindo Hotel was entered and a sack containing $10 taken from the cash register. Entrance was effected by forcing the rear door.

POET MARKHAM IS NOT A PLAGIARIST

Author of the "Man With the Hoe" Did Not Get His Inspiration From Cora Chase's Poem.

Prof. Edwin Markham is not a plagiarist. He is a gentleman, a scholar and a poet. The Bulletin yesterday published a poem about a "Hoe-man" written by Cora Chase ten years ago. It made no comment on the poem but then there was an inference that did not seem favorable to Mr. Markham. The matter did the poet an injustice.
Mr. Markham has the following to say on the subject:
"All my life I have been engaged in the study of economic and social problems. Man interests me, I believe, in the social progress of society and in the progress of mankind. In that direction my sympathies have always been called out. The questions of human welfare, of social justice—these are the things which hold my heart. So, when fifteen years ago, I came across a photographic reproduction of Miller's painting 'The Man With the Hoe,' I was at once attracted and held by the terror of it. I saw in it the history of degraded labor, the history of injustice. Here was a man that symbolized the work-worn thousands who built London and the forgotten millions who toiled in the erection of the Pyramids. So, here was a theme to my hand and I at once made note of it in my scratch-book.
"At that time I was living in the Sierras, and I often talked of the Hoe picture with my friend, Alastair Upton, the well-known Hornetman, who is now on the staff of the New York Evening Telegram.
"I believe that it was he who said to me, 'My dear Markham, you are the man to put this thing into literature.' If there is anything on earth to whom I am at all indebted for any suggestions it is my good friend Alastair Upton.
"So, as time went on, I added now and then to my original idea when ever occasionally I was turning the leaves of my portfolio. So time passed, until nine years ago, when I went to live on the hills above Fruitvale, one of Oakland's sequestered and romantic suburbs. There it was the custom of some of my literary friends to visit me from time to time. Among this circle was Miss Cora E. Chase.
"One of the frequent topics of conversation in those days was Miller's 'Man With the Hoe,' a copy of which was pinned to my library wall. I am told that then it was my custom to express the same ideas of the picture which afterwards found expression in my Hoe-man.
"A year or two after this I saw Miss Chase's poem in the Illustrated Californian. But this did not deter me from going on with my own. There can be more than one description of the Yosemite—more than one conception of the Majestic. I do not presume to say that I have gotten into the heart of this dread picture, of this tremendous arrangement of civilization. I may say that, my clipping bureau informs me that nearly a hundred poems have appeared with the title 'The Man With the Hoe' since my own appeared. Let anybody who wants to try it. As far as I am concerned it is an open field.
"Finally, when my next Christmas vacation came on I took up the theme with a new energy and finished it in three days. At that time the memory of Miss Chase's poem had entirely faded from my mind. All questions that arise from a comparison of the poems I must leave to the judgment of competent critics.
"How does the publication of Miss Chase's poem in connection with your own effect you?"
"It pleases me. Of course no one has had the hardihood to make any hint of plagiarism in this matter. A conscious plagiarist, in my opinion, is a dark blot on our humanity, worse, perhaps, than a thief, because a thief sometimes pleads his necessities. The plagiarist, as a rule, has no excuse but an itch for notoriety. As a business I prefer sheep stealing to plagiarism."
